New Haven High School

Vol. XIX

Allen County Public Library
Ft. Wayne, Indiana

In Dedication

We, the members of the 1957-1958 Mirage Staff, would like to dedicate this book to the memory of Mr. Richard E. Guthier, band director at our school for many years. During this time, through Mr. Guthier's efforts and sacrifice, our school received many honors; and the name of the New Haven High School Band came to be highly respected. All of us who knew him, loved him; and we will never forget his reaction when "we kids" would play in the wrong key. The last line of a song composed by two band members on the way to a marching contest sums up our feelings about him:

"Oh it's R. E. G. who made us the best band in the land."

MR. PAUL HARDING

Superintendent of
New Haven Public Schools

Butler University, A.B.
Indiana University, M.S.

After three years of service as principal, Mr. Harding became superintendent of our schools in the fall of 1954.

Mr. Harding has many and varied responsibilities. He is general supervisor of the New Haven Schools; he is particularly responsible for the school finances and for the securing of a competent faculty. Also, he serves as a member of the athletic council.

MR. STANLEY GUENTHER

Assaciate Superintendent af
New Haven Public Schoals

Indiana University, B.S.
Ball State Teachers College, M.S.

Mr. Guenther became associated with the New Haven Schools in the fall of 1954.

His chief responsibilities consist of being in charge of maintenance and care of buildings and grounds, inspection of new construction, purchasing of non-instructional supplies, and supervision of transportation.

Pioneer Ice Cream Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana

Administration

MR. MAYNARD HENWOOD

Senior High Principal

Earlham College, A.B.
Indiana University, M.S.

Mr. Henwood became associated with the New Haven Schools in the fall of 1952 as assistant principal. Two years later, in 1954, he became principal and has held that position since that time.

His position calls for a great variety of qualifications, all of which are called into use as he goes about his task of supervising teaching personnel and students from grades nine through twelve. He, too, is a member of the Athletic Council.

MR. SCOTT ARMSTRONG

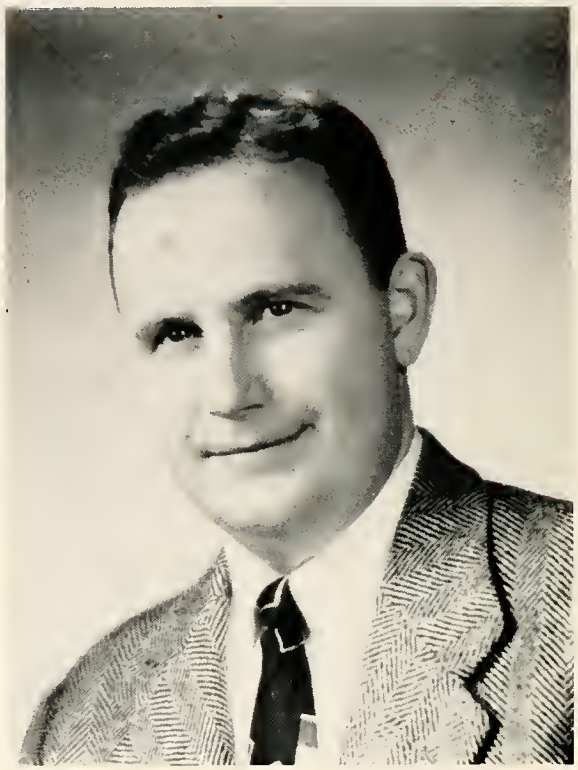
Junior High Principal

Butler University, B.S.
Indiana University, M.S.

Mr. Armstrong became a member of the faculty of New Haven High School in 1948. He took up his present position in the fall of 1957.

Mr. Armstrong's duties include coaching track and football, being director of athletics for the school, and being in charge of the Junior High. In addition, he is a member of the Athletic Council and is in charge of the student insurance program.

Administration



MR. ROBERT E. HOLT

Elementary Principal

Indiana Central College, B.S.
Ball State Teachers College, M.A.

Mr. Holt came to the New Haven Schools in the fall of 1954, after teaching in the Newcastle school system. He assumed the position of elementary principal and is in his third year in that position.

He is in charge of teaching personnel and students from grades one to six, and is co-sponsor of the Future Teachers of America, a high school organization.

MR. JOHN H. YOUNG

Principal of Village School

Ball State Teachers College, B.S.
Indiana University, M.S.

Mr. Young assumed the position of principal at the Village School in 1954, after serving many years in the New Haven Schools as a teacher, o principal, and a superintendent.

He is in charge of teaching personnel and students at the Village School. In addition, he is directly responsible for supervision of all construction of new buildings erected in the New Haven school system.

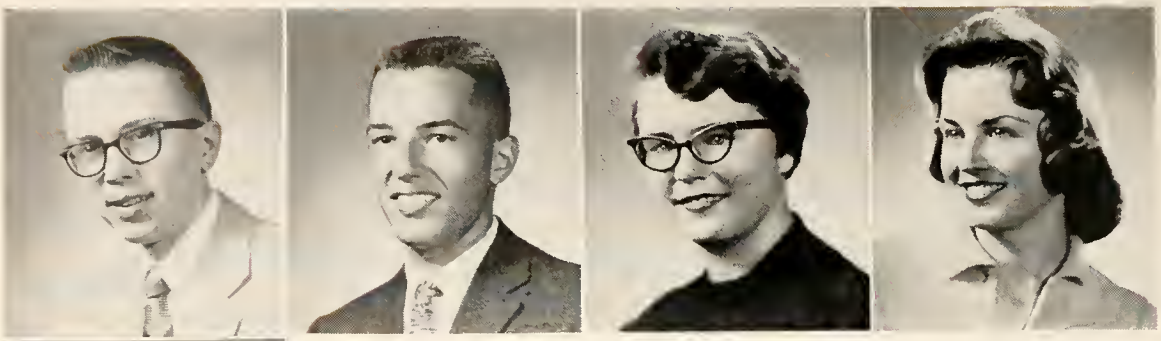
CLUBS

National Honor



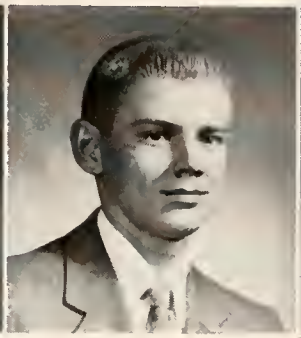
Clockwise: Jane Glassett, Sharon Null, Judith Tustison, Judith Deck, Terry Bowers, David Unsicker, Caralyn Feasel, Tana Ihrie.

National Honor Society is the highest scholastic honor given in New Haven High School. Membership is open to all Juniors and Seniors who maintain a "B" average. They must also possess good citizenship, leadership, and a willingness to serve. National Honor has its formal initiation in the spring, at which time membership cards and pins are given.

The officers of the society are as follows: Terry Bowers, president; David Unsicker, vice-president; Carolyn Feasel, secretary-treasurer. The sponsors are Miss Opal Bower and Mr. Francis May.

Franklin Finance Company—Loans and Financing—721 Broadway, New Haven, Indiana—Ph. 5193

National Honor

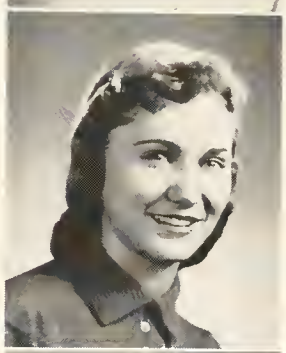


Clockwise: Delores Rodenbeck, Jonice Busche, Thomas Wiese, Philip Rogers, Mary Lou Jacquay, Delores Rothenhofer, Sally Hamilton, and Lana Show.

The 1958 members of the National Honor Society were chosen during the last part of February, and a formal initiation was held April 2 in the auditorium. This initiation was a candlelight ceremony, and was very impressive. The student body watched these candidates become members:

SENIORS: Nancy Beard, Alice Emenhiser, Diane Pabst, Victor Parmelee, and Sally Strole.

JUNIORS: Sandra Augenstein, Carol Bryan, Paul Frock, Nadine Gliedt, Alfred Herman, Sandra Lepper, Carol Longardner, Susan Moody, and Lee Nickerson.



Student Council

Student Council is an organization developed to promote school activities, to develop respect for school property, to provide for the general welfare of the student body, to make the school a happy place for mental, moral, and physical development, and to aid the administration in furthering its policies for the betterment of the school.

During the school year Council sponsors the Snowball Hop, the annual mid-winter dance, and several assemblies. They also sponsor the Halloween party for the high school held in the gym.

The Junior Red Cross Council consists of one representative from each home room. The meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

The officers are as follows: President, Dave Dumford; vice-president, Susan Moody; secretary-treasurer, Anita Putt; and reporter, Mary Jo Cline. Mrs. West is the sponsor.

The Junior Red Cross has as its objective helpfulness and service, and it has always been our desire to aid everyone at all times. This organization not only serves to guide a student now, but helps to inspire him in the future.

One of the projects of the Junior Red Cross is "Christmas on the High Seas." This program provides gifts for service men enroute on Christmas Day to stations overseas. These gifts are sent to ports to be placed on outgoing ships so that each serviceman at sea on Christmas morning has a present. This year gifts will go to Operation Deep Freeze in Antarctica, also to such isolated installations as Destroyer Escort Roder and Floating Warning Units.

The New Haven Bulldogs came through with a very successful season, winning fifteen games and losing eight. Our coach, "Red" Sering, looks for a good season next year, as only Davis and Buhr are lost by the senior route. The Bulldogs were eliminated in the County Tourney finals by three points. In the Sectional Tourney they lost to the No. 1 rated team in the state poll—South Side 67, New Haven 53.
